Adobe Illustrator This program is for making illustrations and being an all-purpose tool for drawing letters, graphics, or any other vector-based media. It works well for beginners as well as intermediate to advanced users and enables you to draw, mark, or trace drawings and text in different media, such as Photoshop or CorelDRAW. It doesn't have the same applications and benefits as Photoshop, but you can find numerous resources for training on it and tutorials to help you get started. It has a library of Illustrator templates you can use and a settings manager. The Adobe Illustrator Package contains a number of different manuals and guides depending on the version of the software. Elements offers a slightly different version than Illustrator.

What's New in the?

A pop star's new battlecry: 'Love yourself and be proud of yourself' Megan Johnson, 12, has started a letter-writing campaign to her local MP on the subject of being bullied and urged fellow 13-year-olds to take up the challenge. The campaign is being orchestrated by an organisation called GBY (Get Bullying YOu), with the support of a number of high-profile celebrities including Gok Wan, Kate Upton and Samantha. Johnson, a sixth-former at Liverpool city council primary school, has started a letter-writing campaign to her MP Malcolm Bruce, urging him to tackle school bullying. She's been writing a letter a day to him for about a month now in an effort to end bullying of students of all ages and backgrounds and has so far received over 3,500 responses. She said: "We've got letters in solidarity from students from all ages, all countries. "So we just say 'We're going to be a pop star with the best song. We're going to bring awareness to it and we're going to change things'. "I'm also going to use it to bring more awareness to mental health as well. People can talk to my mum or my dad about how they feel as well. "We've got music but we're also going to have a social campaign. "People will be able to download the MP3s. "As soon as you open the file you'll hear it. It's got the lyrics for your MP, and I'm sharing mine on Facebook as well." Through petitions she has already collected over 400,000 signatures online, which were read out to the Prime Minister at her recent Maidenhead fundraising dinner. She added: "They're going to go and put them onto parliament and take them to the top of the Commons. "I don't want people to be bullied, whether it's in school or anywhere. I want it to stop. "We've got a lot of the celebrities donating to us, so we're going to be using that. "It would be good if other schools would get on board with it as well and
